

NYS PUBLIC TRANSIT INNOVATION CONFERENCE

October 16-18, 2017
The Desmond • Albany, NY

2017 Call for Proposals

Planning is underway for the New York Public Transit Industry's 2017 Innovation Conference & Expo, October 16-18, in Albany, NY. The New York Public Transit Association (NYPTA) seeks proposals specific to our conference theme to be considered for conference sessions.

Selected proposals will be allotted 30-55 minutes for a presentation. Proposals that tie to the conference theme will be given priority.

Presentations will be selected based on topics, relevance to conference attendees, timeliness, and other criteria. Please submit your proposal by no later than April 1st.

When completing your proposal, be concise, yet include enough detail to convey the scope of the presentation content. Proposals should not exceed two pages in length.

Topic Ideas:

- Service innovations
- Intermodal planning, services, facilities
- Revenue innovations
- Mobility management
- Professional development
- Public/private partnerships
- Cost saving innovations
- Maintenance topics
- Emergency procedures
- Technology transfer
- Procurement (vehicles, fuel)
- Safety and security policies programs
- Senior management leadership training
- Best practices for small and large operations

Thank you for your support of the New York Public Transit Association, and our conference partners, the New York State Department of Transportation and FTA Region II.
